Dear Betty,
I'm sorry it has taken me so long to respond to your email. You and Ed have been doing some very interesting research.

I have looked through my records, and I don't have anything to add to what is already shown in the cookbook I produced. I believe Renee has already given you copies of the pages which contained the family tree or copies of family documents. The other pages contain recipes and photos.

Yes, I would be very pleased to get a copy of the census records you have obtained. I would also be happy to send you a photocopy of the entire cookbook if you're interested.

There is much documentation on William Doxey found in books pertaining to San Francisco history and the history of book publishing on the West Coast. In fact, his biography was published in 1983 by the Book Club of California in hard cover limited edition. I have a copy of the book and would be glad to show it to you at Renee's house sometime.

Please let me know should you uncover any other interesting tidbits of information. Best of luck to you in your continued research.

Dear Lisa:

I sent an e-mail to you earlier today, but it was returned. I had typed your address wrong. I cc your mother & Renee, but I guess theirs went all right. I will just retype what I sent earlier.

"Thanks for the e-mail. I'll be glad to send you copies of the census records we found, and I will send you copies of what we have in the computer. I would love to have a copy of your cookbook. My address is Betty Leach, 7541 Oak Leaf Drive, Santa Rosa, CA 95409.

Does the biography of William Doxey in the 1983 Book Club of California have information about his family. The 1910 census shows that Dee Doxey had had seven children. Five were still living in 1910. If it is a short biography, I would like to have a xeroxed copy of it. He sound like an interesting person. Hawthorne was a very unusual name to give a child as a given name, but it would fit a book lover.

What is missing is the 1910 census for Jacob Pletka. He was probably in Pulaski County in Indiana. It would probably take 4 to 5 hours to read the entire county, but I can order census microfilm through my local library. I guess I will try ordering the Pulaski County 1910 census. Maybe I can find Jacob and his family. If it can be found, it might answer some Pletka questions. I really love to solve the puzzles that genealaogical research provides.

Do you think your father's brother, Dennis, or his sister, Irene, would have Pletka information? I don't know if they would like someone outside the family to call for information. I'm doing my paternal grandmother's family now. She was a Dutch immigrant, & she was the oldest of 13 children. When I call descendants of her siblings, I just say our father's were cousins; and I have only had one person refuse to give me information.

I look forward to receiving a xeroxed copy of your cookbook. Maybe I will find a recipe we like."

Sincerely,
Betty, bleach@inreach.com

Thanks for the note. I wish I was going too. I sure like to fish. Catch a big one for me, ok? Dennis is my dad's brother. The L.M. Pletka I don't know of in Winamac but that is my sister's initials, Lisa Marie Pletka. Yes, Mitchell would be Irene. I wish I could help you out more with the puzzle. You are welcome to email my sister with any questions you may have. I told her you were putting this together. Her email address is: lpletka@earthlink.net. Dear Renee:

We're ready to leave in about 45 minutes. We wish you were going along, too.

Please tell your Mom that I will be in touch with her by e-mail when I get back. Who are the two Pletkas that I found in Winamac on the Internet: Dennis F. Pletka & L. M. Pletka. I found a Ray Mitchell at 2617 E. State Road 14, Winamac. Would that be Irene? I wish I could straighten out the children of Jacob Pletka. Did Lisa put in her cookbook where she obtained the names of Jacob & Mary's children.

We'll miss you.

Dear Renee et al:

Ed said that you would try to get an appointment with Dr. Hardy after 11 a.m. on September 29. Thanks a lot.

Since the 29th is Vera's 80th birthday, we decided she should be satisfied with our choice of restaurant. When Ed talked to her tonight, she said that she liked the Olive Garden. We remembered that Mike had said you folks liked it, too. It sounds like a winner, so we'll plan to go there.

I still haven't received a call from the Library concerning the microfilm for Pulaski County, Indiana; but I hope it comes within the next few days. I hope to find something interesting.

We look forward to seeing you all on the 29th of September.

Love,
Ed & Betty

Dear Renee:

We have one more camping/fishing trip this year. Saturday, we're going to Eagle Lake for a week. You could really catch a big one there. I'm hoping for much greater personal success this year. Last year the fish score was 16 to 4, and I hope it will be at least 16 to 8 this year.

Yesterday, I ordered the Pulaski County 1910 census. It will probably be at our local library in 2 to 3 weeks. Possibly, I will be able to find Jacob Pletka somewhere in the county, I hope. I'll give it a try anyway.

We hope all is well. How is Mike doing on the new medicine? More later.

Love,
Betty

Subject: Borch Genealogy

Dear Renee & Mrs. Pletka::

Ed was working withf the CD's that have the SS Index last night, so I asked him to look up some of your ancestors. He found the following:

Elmer Borch, b. 31 Jul 1899, d. Oct 1975, Hobart, IN, SS No. 313-07-0548, last zip code 46342

Vera Borch, b. 31 Mar 1899, d. Jan 1988, Hobart, IN, SS No. 305-70-2004

Thomas Pletka, b. 30 Oct 1933, d. 15 Dec 1995, SS No. 305-42-8001. Was this Thomas Frank & Martha's son?

Martha Pletka, b. 29 July 1902, d. Apr 1986, Winamac, IN, SS No. 303-70-3835, last zip code 46996.

Ed didn't find Frank Pletka, Raymond Pletka or any other Pletkas that we were sure of.

Renee does Lisa have birth dates or any other information on the children of Jacob & Mary Pletka? Where did she find her information? Were there bible records? Finding those two Jacob's with wives Mary is very confusing. I would love to know where they were in 1910. If we had time and acess to census records, we could read an entire county in two or three hours. Ed checked the Twp. where they were in 1920, but he couldn't find them.

Anyway, he was able to check the Social Security Index without leaving the comfort of his chair at home. He just puts his laptop computer on his lap and goes to work.

Please be sure to let me know about any errors you find. It takes several revisions to be almost finished, but it really isn't possible to find everything at once. (For example, I have been looking for the parents of one of my great grandfathers for about 14 years. I still haven't found out who they were. It often just takes time & luck.)

Sincerely,

Betty

Renee, I'll do a pedigree chart for Erica; however, I don't have anything on her dad's side. If you have some information, I'll be glad to enter it into the program. Vicky's pedigree chart is filling up. Mrs. Pletka, I didn't get your birth date & birthplace. It's possible that I just missed it. I love to get e-mai, so just send me one anytime. bjl

Dear Betty, I do appreciate the time and effort you and your husband have put in on our faily history. The family historian in the Pletka family died in 1995. I am sure one of my husbands sisters have family pictures and history records. They live in Winamac, Indiana about 55 mi. south of Hobart and I do not keep in touch. Erica's grandmother is a nearby resident, of German decent, grew up in Germany during Hitlers controling era. She is very vocal about her background. I dont know if Rene would want to pursue their family history. My birthdate is October 29, 1925 in Chicago, Ill. You asked about Thomas Pletka, he was Martha and Franks son, died in Winamac, 1995. I will look forward to more E-messages. Janith Pletka.

There were no errors that I could determine. I e-mailed my birtdate and birthplace to you. I was very intrested in the Greek spelling of Vouakus and Greek speeling of Peter. I have no record of when Vouraky came to the Unite States. All I have on my mothers family history are old photos, a marriage certificate and a christening certificate. She was a only Child, and I was a only child. A small family. I have allowed a lot of time to go by, please excuse and E-mail if you need future info. (which I probably cannot supply!)

Subject: Pletka/Vouraky Genealogy

Dear Lisa:

We went on a short vacation at the end of June with Renee & Mike & family. While we were fishing, we were talking about family history, etc. (Renee was fishing with Ed & me in the little boat, so we had a lot of talking time. By the way, she caught two very nice fish; and we were all very proud of her.) Ed & I were just getting ready to go to Newport Beach, CA, for two weeks; and since it was very close to a National Archives Branch, I planned to do some research there. So we got some family information from Renee, and we decided to see what we could find.

Renee faxed us some pages from your cookbook that had some genealogical information on them. I thought that was a great idea to include some family history in your book.

Do you have any additional information concerning Jacob Pletka. We found Jacob & Mary Pletka on the 1920 census, but we weren't able to find them on the 1910 census. Illinois had an index to the 1910 census, but Indiana did not. They did not show up in Illinois in 1910. Ed looked through the entire township where they were located in 1920, but he didn't find them. We didn't have time to check the entire county. The 1910 census record would probably answer some more questions. (I feel that the census records are as close as we can get to actually getting direct information from the people.) We did find a Jacob Plaitka & Mary in Illinois in 1900. The children's names were similar, but they had one daughter Carrie. There was no son, Charles. We wondered if this was the same Jacob Pletka.

Concerning George Vouraky: We weren't able to find him in either San Francisco or New York in 1900. Our Greek friend said that he has never heard of a Greek surname ending in Y. Apparently, people at Ellis Island chopped off parts of names, etc. He said his mother's long surname was shortened to Chrys. I checked the Internet, but I found no Vourakys. When I dropped the Y, some Greek sounding names came up. There were a number of Vourakis living in the U.S. today. Anyway this is interesting.

This search started because Renee's side of Vicky's ancestor chart was virtually empty. Anyway, now it's getting filled up.

Do you have information about your father's brothers & sisters and their families? I will be glad to send you copies of the census information we found. We found William Doxey & wife, Dee, and three children on the 1880 census in San Francisco. It gave his occupation as a bookseller. The children were William, Hawthorne, & Mary Belle (Maribelle). The 1910 census enumerated Dee with her daughter, Maribelle, & her new husband, Fred Stark, in Chicago. The census recorded that Dee had had 7 children, I believe. I'm writing from memory, but I believe I'm correct. (Ed & I concluded that William Doxey's favorite author must have been Nathaniel Hawthorne.)

Just let me know if you want copies of the census records we found and of the data I put into my program. We aren't going on anymore vacations for awhile, so I'll be glad to send it to you next week if you want it. We weren't able to find Vaclav Pletka on the 1910 Illinois census. It really is fun to find what you're looking for, but it's also disappointing to fail to find them. If you know when and where Jacob went into Indiana that would be a help. The only time I get to the National Archives is when we are in Newport Beach or Kansas City. We live in Santa Rosa, and the closest branch to us is San Bruno. It just isn't worth fighting that monumental traffic to get there.

I believe Ed & I met you at Renee & Mike's at a Christmas party a few years ago. We have been working on our families since 1986. We still haven't been able to get beyond Ed's great great grandfather Leach who was reportedly born in New Hampshire. We haven't actively been working on that one for awhile. We are letting it rest while hoping for a break.

Sincerely,

Ed & Betty Leach

Dear Betty,
Thanks for your note. I'm glad you like the cookbook. I'm afraid most of those recipes probably look better on paper than they taste on a plate... pretty heavy fare, most of it. I must confess I'm not much of a cook, and haven't tried them myself.

I have no names to suggest for your trip to Newport Beach, but if you happen to run across anything Pletka-related, I'll be interested to hear about it.

I'm planning to invite Renee and family to my house on Christmas Day, so I am hoping I will see you then, too.

Dear Betty,
Many thanks for sending me those papers in the mail regarding my family geneology. You must have a special software program which allows you to put things in such neat order. I will photocopy my cookbook and send you a copy soon.

I appreciate your efforts to dig up the particulars on our side of the family. I am now going through a phase of my life where I am more concerned about taking care of myself in the present and immediate future; I do not have the extra energy and interest to do genealogy work at this time. Yet if I am lucky, I will enter another phase of my life when I will again have the time and energy for it. In the meantime, many thanks for sharing your findings with me.

   SOURCES: Information for the Pletka/Borch families was gathered from the following sources: (1) Mrs. Lisa Marie Milewski, Berkeley, CA; (2) Mrs. Raymond Pletka, Hobart, IN; & (3) Mrs. Renee Leach, Hayward, CA.

   The information on the family group sheets is the first draft. Please send corrections or additions to Mrs. Betty Leach, 7541 Oak Leaf Drive, Santa Rosa, CA 95409-6263. If you wish, just use the enclosed papers as work sheets.

3. Janith Elaine BORCH-1412 was born 29 Oct 1925 in Chicago, Cook, IL.

5. Martha PUCKA-2301 was born 29 Jul 1902 in nr Chicago, Cook ?, IL. She died Apr 1986 in Winamac, Pulaski, IN.

   SOURCE OF DEATH INFORMATION: FTM, SS Index, SS No. 313-07-0548, last zip code, 46342

   SOURCE OF DEATH INFORMATION: FTM, SS Index, SS No. 305-70-2004.

Fourth Generation

8. Jacob PLETKA-2299 was born about 1861 in Bohemia. He died 1946. Jacob married Mary NEUZIL-2300 on 25 Nov 1883 in Chicago, Cook, IL (MRIN:707).

   CHILDREN: Two sources for Jacob's children exist. 1. Lisa Marie Pletka Milewski, daughter of Raymond & Janith Pletka, did a cookbook with considerable genealogical data. Her sister, Renee, shared the helpful genealogical data. The 1900 Census for the Town of Lake, City of Chicago, Cook Co., IL, provided a similar list; but it had some differences. I will put Lisa's list under Jacob & Mary's children for now.

   Lisa's list: Edward, James, Jacob, Bohumil, Charles, Joseph, & Frank, who was born in 1902 after the 1900 Census. Mary stated in 1900 that she had 6 children at that time, and they were all living.

   1900 Census list: James, son, born October 1885, age 14; Eddie, son, born March 1890, age 10; Jacob, son, born August 1891, age 8; Bolinor ? (name unclear), son, born May 1894, age 6; Joseph, son, born February 1896, age 4; Carrie, daughter, born 1898, age 2.

   Also included on the census was Mary Pliatka, mother, born June 1819, Bohemia.

   On the 1900 census, Mary, wife of Jacob, gave April 1870 as her birth month & year. This census was taken on the 4th of June, 1900. On the 1920 census, Mary was 49. This census was taken on 12 January 1920. The ages for Mary are in agreement on both censuses.

   On the 1900 census taken 4 June 1900, Joseph's birth month & year were given as February 1896. His age was given as 4. In 1920, his age was given as 22, and the census was taken the 12th of January 1920. His age appears to be very close on both censuses.

   It would be ideal to have found the 1910 census for Jacob Pletka; but since no index exists for Indiana, it would be an insurmountable job. Rich Grove Twp., Pulaski Co., was searched, but the family was apparently not there in 1910. Illinois did have an index, but he was not located in Illinois either. Sorry.

   The age for Jacob Pliatka appears to be incorrect on the 1900 census. His birth date was given as March 1868. He would have been 17 when his first son was born. Both Mary & Jacob gave the years of marriage as 17. They would have married about 1883. (I really believe that Jacob's age is incorrect on the 1900 census.)

   Census research was done by Ed & Betty Leach at the National Archives Branch, Laguna Niguel, California, July 2000.

9. Mary NEUZIL-2300 was born Apr 1870 in Bohemia.

14. Panay George Voure VOURAKY-2315 was born in Greece. He married Maribelle DOXEY-2316 on 1898 in San Francisco, San Francisco, CA (MRIN:713).

15. Maribelle DOXEY-2316 was born 1879 in San Francisco, San Francisco, CA.

Fifth Generation

17. Anna KERL-2325 was born in Bohemia.

30. William DOXEY-2317 was born about 1846 in England. He married Dee-2318 about 1874 (MRIN:714).

OCCUPATION: William Doxey's owned a book store in San Francisco. He was listed on the 1880 census as a bookseller. (I wonder if his favorite author was Hawthorne. He named his 2nd son, Hawthorne.)

31. Dee-2318 was born about 1851 in England.

CHILDREN: On the 1910 Census for Chicago, Dee was living with her daughter & her second husband, Frederick W. Stark. She stated that she had had 7 children, and 5 were living on the 15th day of April 1910. The first 3 children were listed on the 1880 census for the City of San Francisco. The family was found in Supervisor's District No. 1, Enumeration District No. 219, Page No. 5. She had been married 36 years in 1910.

Old Country Cookbook

Recipes and Family History

compiled by Lisa Pletka

This book is dedicated to my father, Raymond Pletka, 1928-1989
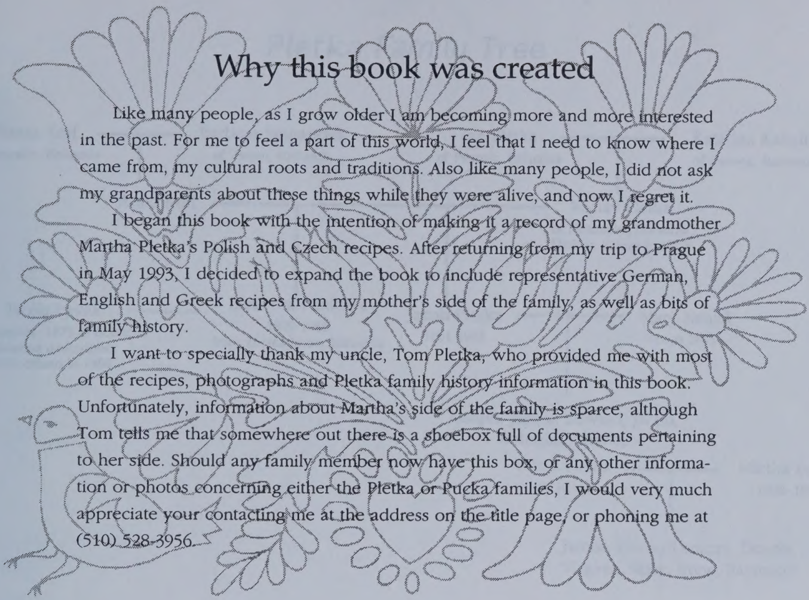
and to my uncle, James Pletka, 1929-1993



Why this book was created

Like many people, as I grow older I am becoming more and more interested in the past. For me to feel a part of this world, I feel that I need to know where I came from, my cultural roots and traditions. Also like many people, I did not ask my grandparents about these things while they were alive, and now I regret it.

I began this book with the intention of making it a record of my grandmother Martha Pletka's Polish and Czech recipes. After returning from my trip to Prague in May 1993, I decided to expand the book to include representative German, English and Greek recipes from my mother's side of the family, as well as bits of family history.

I want to specially thank my uncle, Tom Pletka, who provided me with most of the recipes, photographs and Pletka family history information in this book. Unfortunately, information about Martha's side of the family is sparce, although Tom tells me that somewhere out there is a shoebox full of documents pertaining to her side. Should any family member now have this box, or any other information or photos concerning either the Pletka or Pucka families, I would very much appreciate your contacting me at the address on the title page, or phoning me at (510) 528-3956.

My Father's Side – Eastern Europe

Both Martha and Frank Pletka's ancestors came from countries which, at the end of the 19th century, were suffering from poverty and cultural repression under foreign rule. Although little documentation exists, it is known that Martha's family came from Poland, a country which at that time was divided up three ways – one part ruled by Germany, one by Russia, and the third by Austria. It was a difficult time for small landowners and poor farmers. One can only speculate as to why Martha's parents left their homeland. If they were living in the northeastern part of Poland controlled by the Germans (and it is possible, since Pucka, Martha's maiden name, is also the name of a town in that area), then they could have been one of the families forced off their land by German settlers in 1886.

More is known about Frank Pletka's side of the family, as a baptismal certificate traces them all the way back to several small villages along the Vltava River near the town of Tyn nad Vltavou in southern Bohemia, now a part of the Czech Republic. (See the Pletka Family Tree at left). Czechoslovakia split up into two parts – the Czech Republic and the Slovak Republic – in January, 1993. Bohemia was part of the Austrian empire at the time that Frank's parents emigrated to the U.S.

For Frank and Martha, growing up in the United States the children of emigrants, differences between the Czech and Polish languages and cultural traditions were smoothed over. As the Czech language is similar to the Polish language, so do the foods share many of the same characteristics. Meat is a staple of the diet, with noodles, dumplings or potatoes almost always accompanying. Common vegetable side dishes are salads made from beets, cucumber, or cabbage. A wide variety of pastries and cakes are made using cheese and fruit fillings and toppings.

I record some of these recipes in this book, not because they are particularly unique, but because of the happy memories and traditions they represent.

Wamaczka

This is a cream of chicken soup that is given a unique flavor by allspice.

1 onion, chopped	1 tablespoon allspice
1/4 cup oil	1 cup cream
flour	one pint sour cream
4 cups water	1 can mushroom soup
chicken	vinegar
canned or bottled mushrooms

In a large kettle, saturate the onion in the oil, then stir in the flour. Slowly add the water, stirring so that the flour does not lump. Put in the chicken and add water to cover. Add mushrooms, allspice and salt. Cook until chicken is done.

In a bowl mix 3 tablespoons flour with the cream, then mix in the sour cream and one can of mushroom soup. Add this mixture to the chicken broth, stirring slowly and constantly. Add 1/4 cup vinegar or enough to suite your taste. Heat until hot, but do not boil.

Grandma Pletka's Chicken Soup

This recipe is what earned Martha the nickname of "Grandma Chicken Soup" while we were growing up. Serve this soup with Kluski, recipe on following page.

- 1/2 stewing hen, cut up, or small package of chicken gizzards
- 1 cup celery, chopped
- 1/2 cup carrots, chopped
- 4 chicken bouillon cubes
- dash of white pepper
- 2 quarts water

A stewing hen is best; do not use fryers or roasting chickens. Do not skin the chicken, but cut off the excess fat. The chicken can be skinned after the soup is made. Put chicken, water, and bouillon cubes in a 4 to 6 quart pot. Simmer for two hours with the pot covered, but vented a little.

After two hours remove cover, add one cup of cold water and skim off fat. Add carrots, celery and pepper. Cover loosely and simmer another 20 minutes. This should produce three quarts of soup with the chicken in the pot. If not, add a little water.

Kluski (Noodles)

- 2 cups flour
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1 egg

Mix flour and salt in a mixing bowl. Make a hole in the middle of the flour big enough for 1 egg and enough water to fill the hole. Mix well and knead to make a stiff dough. Roll out on a well-floured board. Flour the top of the dough, then cut it into strips and cut strips into noodles. Boil in water for 20 to 30 minutes. Drain in colander.

Pierogi

Filling

1 pound bakers cheese
1 pound farmers cheese
4 ounces cream cheese
3 egg yolks
1 teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon sugar
1/2 cup melted butter

Dough

3 1/2 cups flour
2 teaspoons salt
2 eggs
3/4 cup milk
2 tablespoons melted butter

Combine cheeses with egg yolks, salt, sugar and melted butter. Set aside. Sift flour with salt; set aside 1/2 cup. Add eggs, milk, and melted butter to the remaining flour, mixing together until a stiff dough is formed. Turn out onto a floured board and knead lightly until smooth. Cover with a bowl and allow to rest. Roll out one third of the dough at a time to 1/8 inch thickness. Cut dough into rounds. Put one level teaspoon of the cheese mixture into the middle of each round; fold over to form a pocket and seal the edges. Drop about two dozen dumplings into boiling water with salt in it. Cook 5 or 6 minutes. Remove with a slotted spoon and serve with melted butter.

Pickles Haragsim

During my trip to Prague in May 1993, Ludmila and Oldrich Haragsim helped me make contact with a Pletka family living in that city. Here are two of their favorite pickle recipes.

Sweet Pickles

1 1/2 liters water
1/2 liter (or less) vinegar
300 grams sugar
60 grams salt
pepper (mustard seeds optional)
10 whole peppercorns
4 bay leaves
onion, garlic and carrots, chopped
small pickle cucumbers

Bring water mixed with spices to a boil. Allow liquid to cool (should be enough for 6 3-liter jars). Put cucumbers and chopped vegetables in jars and pour liquid over top to fill jar. Screw on lids tightly. Boil the full jars for 5 minutes. Turn jars upside down to cool off. Before eating, soak pickles in cold water to make them firm.

Polish-style Pickles

larger-size cucumber pickles water
salt
piece of bread

Make knife holes in cucumbers. Dissolve a large spoonful of salt into a liter of water which has been boiled, then cooled. Put cucumbers, water, and the piece of bread into a deep dish and weigh down the pickles (I use a pan lid with stones on top). Leave for a few days until water has turned milky white.

"Hairy" Dumplings

Submitted by Ivana Pletkova-Matyasova of Prague. This is a raw potato dumpling recipe typical of southern Bohemia and was a favorite of her father's.

- 1 kilogram raw, peeled potatoes
- 110 grams meal
- 120 grams semolina
- 1 egg
- 60 grams fat
- 1 spoonful milk or cream
- 10 grams salt

Wash, peel, and grate the potatoes. Strain out part of the water. Sprinkle potatoes with the milk or cream, then add the salt, egg, semolina and meal, and mix well. To form the dumplings, first dip your hands in water, or use a spoon to make the dumplings the size of eggs. Drop them into salted boiling water and cook 6-10 minutes. During the cooking, make sure the dumplings do not attach to the bottom of the pan by lifting and turning them with a wooden spoon. When the dumplings are done, slice them, garnish with fried onion and serve them with vegetables and roast pork. These dumplings have a blue color, but if they are mixed with cabbage immediately after cooking they will have a normal color.

Kolacky

These little round cake/cookies, a Czech recipe, were our favorite snack at Grandma's house when we came to visit as children.

- 1 pound oleo, softened
- 4 eggs
- small carton sour cream
- 1 yeast cake
- 1 tablespoon sugar
- 4 cups flour
- any kind of filling (the granddaughters' favorites were cheese, poppy seed and apricot)

Mix together well the oleo, eggs and sour cream. Dissolve the yeast cake into 1/2 cup warm water mixed with 1 tablespoon sugar. Work in 4 cups or more flour, then add the sour cream mixture to the flour mixture. Store overnight in the refrigerator in a covered bowl. Roll out dough into 1/2 thickness, cut into rounds. Make a dent in the center of each round and fill with any kind of filling. Bake in 400 degree oven for 20 minutes.

V dolky

A Czech yeast pastry topped with prunes, cottage cheese and whipped cream.

1 package yeast
1/4 cup lukewarm water
3/4 cup milk, scalded
1/2 cup butter
2 tablespoons sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon vanilla
2 egg yolks
3¼ cups flour

Topping
1/2 pound prunes, pitted & chopped
1 cup creamed cottage cheese
1 cup whipped cream

Dissolve yeast in water. Combine milk, butter, sugar, salt, vanilla and egg yolks. Cool, then add yeast. Add flour gradually and beat until smooth. Turn into a buttered bowl and let rise until double. Turn out onto floured cloth and roll to 1/4 inch thickness. Cut into rounds; brush tops with butter. Let rise until light.

Heat skillet over medium heat, and when hot place v dolky buttered side down first. When lightly browned (about 5 minutes), turn over and bake the other side until light brown.

Mix prunes and lemon juice together. When v dolky are cool, spread generously with prunes, then with a layer of cottage cheese, then whipped cream.

My Mother's Side — Western Europe

While my father's side were country people rooted in farming, my mother's side was mostly a city bunch, a mixed bag of nationalities spanning from north to south in Western Europe. My great-great-grandfather came from England, and ran a successful bookstore in San Francisco in the 1890s. Few recipes have survived the generations; but my mother remembers saffron cake as being one of her favorite English treats.

Little is known about my Greek grandfather, except that he served as an interpreter on Ellis Island. I remember a few Greek dishes appearing on the table when I was a child, including spanikopita.

My Greek/English grandmother cooked German dishes for my grandfather, whose family came from Berlin. Potato pancakes, pot roast and pigs' feet with sauerkraut were the usual fare for my mother growing up during the Great Depression in Gary, Indiana.

Saffron Cake & Buns

2-3 good pinches of saffron
1 pound plain flour
1 packet yeast
pinch salt
4 ounces each butter and lard
3 ounces sugar
8-10 ounces mixed dried fruit and candied peel
4 ounces warm milk

Stir the saffron into 6 tablespoons of hot water and leave to infuse while you measure out the other ingredients.

Mix the flour, yeast and salt. Rub in the fats, then thoroughly stir in sugar, fruit and peel. Mix to a dough with the saffron and its water and the warm milk. You may need a little more milk – the dough should be coherent but not too firm to knead comfortably; it should leave the sides of the bowl clean.

Rub over the inside of the bowl with a butter paper and put the dough back. Tie it into a plastic bag and leave to rise until doubled in bulk. Even in a warm place this can take 2 to 3 hours as the mixture is heavy with fruit and fat.

Divide the dough into two. Put one piece, after a brief kneading, into a warmed, greased loaf tin, leaving room for the dough to rise. Divide the dough into even-sized pieces and form them into 6-8 buns; put them on a greased baking sheet.

Tie loaf tin and baking sheet into plastic bags, ballooning them well up so that they will not stick to the rising dough. Leave for about an hour in a warm place. Switch on oven to 375 degrees about 20 minutes before the dough is ready. ➡

Put the buns on the upper shelf and the loaf tin below. Check the buns after 20 minutes. They will develop the dryish brown crust that is the delicious characteristic of saffron buns and saffron cake. The cake itself can take up to an hour, depending on its size.

Pot Roast with Sour Cream Gravy

2 tablespoons salad oil
1 (4-5 lb.) bottom round beef roast
1 medium onion, sliced
1 cup dry red wine
1 cup water
2 tablespoons flour
1/4 cup cold water
1 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon black pepper
1/2 cup sour cream

Heat oil in Dutch oven; brown meat on all sides. Add onion, wine, and water. Cover and simmer gently for 3-4 hours or until tender. Remove meat and keep warm. Drain off all but 1-1/2 cups liquid. Stir flour into cold water until blended; slowly stir into liquid in pan. Add salt and pepper. Cook, stirring over low heat until thickened. Slowly blend in sour cream. Serve gravy with sliced pot roast.

Spanikopita (Spinach Pie)

2 pounds fresh spinach (or 2 10-ounce packages frozen spinach, thawed)
1/2 cup finely chopped scallions
1/4 cup olive oil
2 tablespoons finely chopped fresh dill, or 1 tablespoon dried dill weed
4 eggs, lightly beaten
1 cup finely crumbled feta cheese
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
dash of nutmeg
3/4 cup butter or margarine, melted
1/2 pound (about 15 sheets) phyllo pastry, thawed

Preheat oven to 350 degrees. Remove large, tough stems from spinach leaves. Wash leaves in cold water, squeeze out and dry. Chop spinach into 1/4-inch pieces. (If using frozen spinach, place thawed spinach in a colander and squeeze out excess moisture.) Heat olive oil in a large frying pan over medium high heat. Add scallions and cook 4 minutes, stirring constantly. Add spinach and cook 3 more minutes. Remove pan from heat and let cool for 5 minutes. Stir in parsley, dill, eggs, feta cheese, salt, pepper, and nutmeg and set aside.

Butter a 9- by 13-inch baking pan. Place one sheet of phyllo pastry in pan. Brush sheet well with melted butter, then put another sheet on top of it. Continue adding sheets, brushing each one with butter, until there are a total of 7 sheets.

Spread spinach filling evenly over phyllo. Trim off dry edges with scissors or a sharp knife. Then fold excess phyllo over the filling. ➡

Place 7 sheets of phyllo pastry over the spinach, brushing each sheet well with melted butter. Again trim off excess phyllo and brush top of pie with melted butter. Bake for 40 minutes or until crust is golden. Cool 5 minutes before cutting into squares.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THE PURCHASE ORDER

1. FULL NAME OF OWNER OR FIRST-NAMED COOWNER. Clearly PRINT in capital letters the full name and social security account number of the owner or first-named coowner. Initials should not be provided for both first and middle names unless they are the owner's legal given name. A social security account number must be provided. If this is a gift bond purchase, use the owner's name and social security account number if available. If the owner's social security account number is unavailable, use the purchaser's number; use of the purchaser's number does not confer rights to the bond or require interest reporting. See example below.

Name JOHN T SMITH

Social Security Number 123-45-6789

Only citizens of the United States, its territories and possessions, resident aliens, and nonresident aliens who are civilian employees of the United States or members of its armed forces may be named as owner or first-named coowner on Series EE savings bonds. Bonds may be registered as follows:

(a) Individuals in their own right - The bonds may be issued in the names of individuals (whether adults or minors) in single ownership, coownership, or beneficiary (POD) forms of registration.

(b) Others - Bonds are also available in other forms of registration. Trust forms of registration must be submitted on Form PD F 5263-1.

2. NAME OF PERSON TO RECEIVE BONDS *IF OTHER THAN OWNER OR FIRST-NAMED COOWNER ABOVE. After "Mail to:" print the name to whom the bonds are to be mailed if different from the owner or first-named coowner shown in 1 above. If the same as in 1 above, leave blank.

NOTE: This information will appear on the bond, but does not establish any ownership rights.

3. ADDRESS WHERE BONDS ARE TO BE MAILED. In all cases, print the address where the bonds are to be mailed.

NOTE: This information will appear on the bond.

4. COOWNER OR BENEFICIARY (Optional). If you wish to name a coowner or beneficiary on the bonds, check the appropriate box to indicate the form of registration desired and print the person's full name. Coownership will be assumed if neither or both boxes are checked.

If you name a coowner: The bonds may be cashed by either coowner. The name of a living coowner cannot be eliminated without the written consent of that coowner.

If you name a beneficiary: The bonds may not be cashed by the beneficiary during the lifetime of the owner. The name of a beneficiary can be eliminated without the beneficiary's consent.

5. BONDS ORDERED. Indicate next to the appropriate denomination the number of bonds being purchased; the total price involved for each denomination (no. of bonds X issue price); and the total amount of purchase. If you fail to indicate the denomination preferred, the fewest number of bonds which equal the total amount of purchase will be issued.

6. DATE PURCHASE ORDER AND PAYMENT PRESENTED TO AGENT. Indicate the date on which the purchase order and payment is presented (received) and accepted by the bank or other financial institution authorized to act as an agent of the Treasury Department.

---

7. SIGNATURE. Please sign this purchase order. Print your name and address if it does not appear in the registration of the bonds as shown in Section 1. In order to promptly resolve any problems connected with this purchase order, also provide a telephone number where you ordinarily may be reached Monday through Friday, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

NOTE: Upon completion, submit purchase order and total amount of purchase to a financial institution authorized to sell U.S. Savings Bonds. ALLOW ABOUT THREE WEEKS FOR PROCESSING.

LINES OF DESCENT FROM JAMES REYNOLDS OF KINGSTOWNE

By Alden G. Beaman, Ph.D.

Stephen F. Tillman's Reynolds Family cites little documentation, and the information it gives on each family is very brief; thus it is considered to be worthwhile to present more complete and documented information of the Reynolds families included in these lines of descent. Each person is given a year of birth, actual, calculated, or approximated. (b 1715) signifies born 1715 either actual or calculated. (ba 1715)signifies born about 1715, a reasonably close approximation. (br 1715) signifies born roughly 1715, only a crude approximation.

/James^1 REYNOLDS was born about 1625 presumably in England. In the listing of the births of his children in Anrold's Vital Record of Rhode Island he is called (of William).Since this is a copy of an original record presumably recorded shortly after the birth of the last child on 22 Dec 1664, it should be reliable. However, as Boyer points out there is no evidence that this James^1 Reynolds was the son of the William Reynolds listed as his father by Austin or of the William Reynolds allegded to be his father by Tillman, and Boyer gives circumstantial evidence to the contrary. James' will was dated 15 Oct 1692 and proved at North Kingstown, the date of proving burned away. He appears to have died between 5 June 1699 when he ratified a deed and 31 Sep 1700 when his will was alluded to. He married Deborah ________ who was born about 1629 and who was not mentioned in his will. The births of his first 7 children are recorded at North Kingstown (Arnold, NK p 92). James Reynolds and his wife Deborah sold land to their son John 26 Dec 1673 and to their son James 29 Apr 1684 (Austin). James' will mentioned his children Joseph, Henry, Deborah Sweet, Francis, & Mary or Mercy Nichols. James a known son sold land to his brother Benjamin 23 Sep 1714 (Austin). The brother Robert claimed by Austin and Tilman as born about 1666 who married Deliverance Smith appears instead to have been born about 1676 son of Joseph^2. Thus Joseph^2 had a daughter Deborah who married Job Babcock, and Robert and Deliverance had a son John who chose his uncle Job Babcock as his guardian 8 June 1730

NORTH KINGSTOWN TC & PROBATE VOL 5 1692-1719.

NOTES: North Kingstown Records Vols 1-4 are other than Probate Records. The North Kingstown records were damaged by fire in the latter half of the nineteenth century. Important data that has been lost is indicated by the symbol [burn]. In cases where will dated dates, will proved dates, names of witnesses and like items which would be routinely recorded are missing in these abstracts, it may be assumed the data had been burned away.

BABCOCK (Line of Caleb of South Kingstown). The South Kingstown Babcocks are a branch of the old family of that name in Westerly, R. I., where generation after generation has lived and flourished for two hundred years. Among those of the name prominent there in the Colonial period, and whose names are secure to live in the annals of Rhode Island, were Hon. Joshua Babcock, a graduate of Yale, a major-general of militia (1776) and chief justice of the Supreme court of Rhode Island; Col. Henry Babcock, of old French war and Revolutionary fame; and Rev. Stephen Babcock, a noted divine and New Light leader. It is the purpose here, however, to deal only with the family and lineage of the late Hezekiah Babcock, some of whose posterity have long been active and prominent in the affairs of Wakefield and in South Kingstown, notably John and John E. Babcock, father and son. There has been no time, perhaps, in fifty years when the name of Babcock has not been in the directorate or among the officers of one of the financial institutions of the town.

The progenitor of the Westerly Babcocks was (I) James Babcock, who was born in 1612, and died in 1679. Mr. Babcock is first of record in Portsmouth, R. I., in 1642, and was commissioner from 1656 to 1659. He settled his family in Westerly soon after 1664. The Christian name of his first wife was Sarah, and that of his second wife Elizabeth. The children of the first union were James, John, Job and Mary, and those of the second were Nathaniel, Joseph and Elizabeth.

From this James Babcock, of Portsmouth and Westerly the lineage of the present John E. Babcock, of Wakefield, is through John, George, Hezekiah, Caleb, Hezekiah (2) and John (2).

(II) John Babcock, born in 1644, married Mary, daughter of George and Elizabeth (Hazard) Lawton. Mr. Babcock was a freeman in 1669; conservator of the peace in 1678; and deputy in 1682-84. He died in 1685, and his wife, Mary, who remarried after his death, passed away in 1711. Their children were: James, Ann, Mary, John, Job, George, Elihu, Robert, Joseph and Oliver.

(III) George Babcock, born in 1673, married Nov. 28, 1694, Elizabeth Hall. He died May 1, 1756. Their children were: Mary, born Sept. 20, 1695; George, April 9, 1699; David, Dec. 22, 1700; Jonathan, March 22, 1702-03; Elizabeth, March 16, 1704-05; Abigail, Feb. 6, 1706-07; Ruth, March 1, 1709; Eunice, Jan. 13, 1712-13; Hezekiah, March 26, 1715; and Elisha, May 18, 1718.

(IV) Hezekiah Babcock, born March 26, 1715, died in 1798. He married Jan. 3, 1739-40, Mary Peckham, of Newport, R. I., who died in 1796.

(V) Caleb Babcock, born July 10, 1741, died Nov. 18, 1826; he married Oct. 3, 1782, Wait Peckham, who died April 12, 1836.

(VI) Hezekiah Babcock (2), born Jan. 3, 1784, died March 4, 1870. He married Jan. 28, 1813, Dorcas Peckham, born Feb. 7, 1787, who died Oct. 22, 1859. She was a daughter of William and Mercy (Perry) Peckham. Their children were: Dorcas Gardner, born Feb. 23, 1816, died July 7, 1903; William P., born April 28, 1818, died Aug. 3, 1861; Hezekiah, born Oct. 31, 1820, died Oct. 10, 1864 (his widow, who married John Allen, is a resident of Wakefield); Adam, born Dec. 14, 1822, died Oct. 26, 1872; John was born May 23, 1831. Both Hezekiah Babcock and his wife were prominent members of the Society of Friends, and Mr. Babcock was a strong advocate of the temperance cause. When young he learned the tanner's trade at the establishment of his wife's father, William Peckham, following that vocation all his life and during his later years superintending the tannery in which he served his apprenticeship. He was quite a figure in the financial affairs of the community, being one of the incorporators of the Wakefield Society for Savings in 1850, and serving for many years not only as a director of that institution, but also of the old State Bank. For some years he was treasurer of the town of South Kingstown.

(VII) John Babcock, son of Hezekiah and Mercy, was born at Matunuck, in South Kingstown, R. I., May 23, 1831. He passed his school days in the little red schoolhouse on the Babcock farm, and for a time was employed with his father in the tanning business. For many years he remained at home engaged in farming and caring for his maiden aunts, one of whom, Elizabeth Peckham, was a noted Quaker preacher. Like his parents he is an earnest member of the Society of Friends, and like his father has a decided talent for business and public affairs. In 1854 he was made a director of the Wakefield State Bank, and now holds a like position with the Wakefield Trust Company. Since April, 1870, he has been president of the Savings Bank, and from 1867 to 1870 served as president of the National Bank. For many years Mr. Babcock was a member of the town council and assessor of taxes, and upon him now for twenty-six years has devolved the management of "The Massasoit," a large hotel at Narragansett Pier, belonging to the bank. For three terms he represented South Kingstown in the legislature, and he is one of the oldest Republicans in the State; in fact, his Republicanism dates from the founding of the party, his first Presidential vote having been cast for John C. Fremont. In November, 1889, Mr. Babcock removed to Wakefield, and there his present beautiful home com-

THE HAZARD FAMILY OF RHODE ISLAND

First Generation

1 THOMAS HAZARD, the progenitor of the Hazard family in the United States of America, was born in 1610; he died in 1680; he married, 1st, Martha ——, who died in 1669. He married, 2d, Martha, widow of Thomas Sheriff; she died in 1691. His name is first found in Boston, Massachusetts, in 1635. In 1638, March 25, he was admitted freeman of Boston. Two years later he was admitted freeman of Portsmouth, Rhode Island. In 1639, April 28, he and eight others signed the following contract, preparatory to the settlement of Newport, Rhode Island: "It is agreed by us whose hands are underwritten to propagate a plantation in the midst of the island or elsewhere, and to engage ourselves to bear equal charge, answerable to our strength and estates, in common, and that our determination shall be by major voice of judge and elders, the judge to have a double voice." The founders and first officers of the town of Newport were William Coddington, Judge; Nicholas Easton, John Coggeshall, William Brenton, John Clarke, Jeremy Clarke, Thomas Hazard, and Henry Bull, Elders; William Dyre, Clerk. In 1639, June 5, he was named one of four proportioners of land in Newport, any three of whom might proportion it; "the company laying it forth to have 4d. an acre for every acre laid." September 2, 1639, he was admitted freeman of Newport, and in 1640, March 12, he was appointed a member of the General Court of Elections. In 1665, he was for a short time in Newtown, Long Island. In his will, proved 1680, his wife Martha, whom he calls his "beloved yokefellow," is sole executrix, and he gives her "all movable and immovable estate, as housing, housing, goods, cattle, and chattels, etc." To his son Robert he gives 1*s*. To his daughters, Hannah Wilcox and Martha Potter, wife of Ichabod Potter, 1*s*.

There is a long line of descendants from this daughter Martha, and Ichabod Potter, with frequent intermarriages in the Hazard family. In the early history of the family it was almost an exception to find a Hazard who did not marry a cousin, and it is a curious fact that the lines in which these marriages were the most frequent, were often marked by the strongest men and women, both mentally and physically.

These few meagre facts are about all that can be found at the present day of the founder of the Hazard family in America. But Thomas R. Hazard, in his Recollections of Olden Times, has given an account of the family that goes back, even beyond the name; its European founder being the Duke de Charante, living about 1060, on the borders of Switzerland. From the Duke de Charante he has given an interesting account of the changes in the name, until towards the close of the eighteenth century, when it was, and still continues to be, written Hazard. Willis R. Hazard, a descendant of Jonathan Hazard of Newtown, Long Island (according to whose opinion Jonathan was a son of Thomas Hazard, but by other authorities a nephew), has given us the chief characteristics of the family; and although his account was intended for the descendants of Jonathan of Newtown, it is equally applicable to the Rhode Island family. He says: "The Hazards are a strongly marked race, handing down and retaining certain peculiarities from generation to generation. One is, a peculiar decision of character, a certain amount of pride, and a pronounced independence, coupled with a slight reserve. Physically they are strongly marked. Generally speaking, they are of good stature and vigorous frames with rather a square head, high forehead, brown hair, blue eyes, straight or aquiline nose, and with will shown by a firmly set jaw. Their complexion is fair, a little inclined to florid."

Few families in Rhode Island have a brighter record than the Hazard family, where, if greatness is not always found, sobriety, honesty, and integrity make even the humblest lives worth studying; and when one finds, as is often the case, a retiring, unpretentious modesty combined with greatness, he must be pardoned for his enthusiastic admiration for the old family tree, that still sends out vigorous shoots after more than two hundred years of growth in America.

On April 30, 1639, he and twenty others signed the following compact: "We whose names are underwritten do acknowledge ourselves the legal subjects of his majesty King Charles, and in his name do hereby bind ourselves into a civil body politicke, unto his laws according to matters of justice."[1]
In 1648, he was a member of the Court of Trials. In 1665, '72, '75, '76, '79, '80, he was Deputy. August 31, 1671, there was a meeting at his house of the Town Council, and Council of War of the two towns was ordered by the Assembly to be held on September 5th, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, "there and then to consider of some ways and means for securing the inhabitants and their estates in these times of imminent danger."[2] Twenty horsemen (ten from each town), completely armed, were to attend at same time and place for the defence of said council there sitting, treachery of the Indians being feared.
In 1676, April 4, it was voted by the Assembly: "That in these troublesome times and straits in this colony, the Assembly, desiring to have the advice and concurrence of the most judicious inhabitants, if it may be had for the good of the whole, do desire at their next sitting the company and counsel of sixteen persons,[3] among them George Lawton."
On May 2, 1676, he and John Easton were desired to go to Providence, with all convenient speed, to determine whether garrisons shall be kept there at charge of colony, a petition having been sent to the Assembly from that place concerning their distressed condition in these present times of wars with the Indians.[4]
In 1678 (October 30), there was ordered by the Assembly a meeting to be held at his house 13th of January next, to adjudge and audit all accounts between towns of Newport and Portsmouth, relating to late Indian wars.[5]

Eben Roberts Commissions

Eben Ezra Roberts was born in Boston, Massachusetts on April 24, 1866, one of four children of George Smith Roberts and Hattie Whitman Sanborn. His father, a woodcarver by trade, instructed young Eben in the art of mechanical drawing. After completing his studies at the Tilton School in Tilton, New Hampshire, he followed his older brother, Dr. Thomas Elmer Roberts, to Chicago, Illinois. In 1889 he went to work for the architect Solomon Spencer Beman at the company town of the Pullman Palace Car Company as a site superintendent. On October 22, 1892 back in Meredith, New Hampshire he married Rossie M. Willey. Together they had a daughter and son, the latter who would eventually go into practice with him.

Eben left Bemen's employ in 1893 to establish his own practice in the village of Oak Park, Illinois. Roberts' commissions were primarily for private residences and his practice soon became the largest in the village, with almost 200 houses that have been attributed to him. He designed houses in many different popular styles, from the Queen Anne and Classical style, influenced by Bemen, to the Prairie style, influenced by his Oak Park contemporaries. But he always added his own decorative features so as not to replicate any one style exactly.

In 1912 Roberts moved his practice to Chicago to specialize in commercial architecture. Some of his commercial commissions included a municipal building, the Second Scoville Block, addition to the high school in Oak Park and a portion of the Julia C. Lathrop Homes in Chicago. In 1923 his son Elmer became his partner and they practiced together for three years until Eben became ill and retired. He died in Muskegon, Michigan on August 4, 1943, just three months after the death of his wife.

The seasoning on the catfish was quite good, but really wasn't all that convinced that the sauce is better than a traditional tarter. It's not a bad sauce, but just not sure if it "works" better than a tartar sauce (especially homemade!). Didn't bother with a grill basket, just grilled the fish directly and it came out fine.
